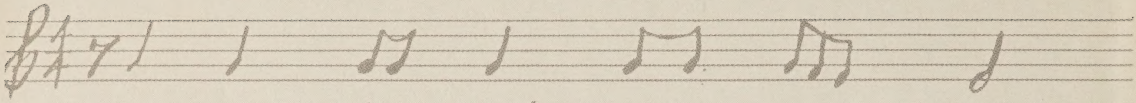
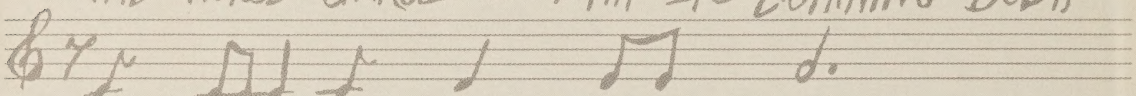
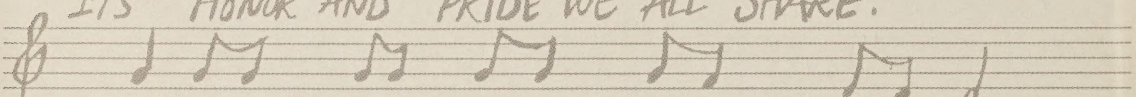
CHANCELLOR HIGH



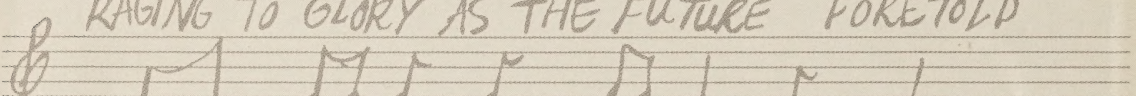
THE HORSE CHARGES ON WITH ITS LIGHTNING BOLT,



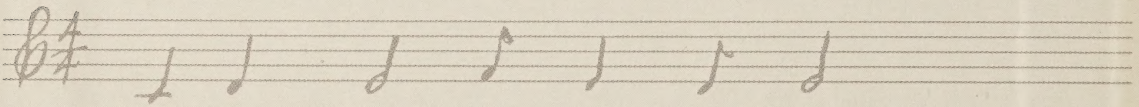
ITS HONOR AND PRIDE WE ALL SHARE.



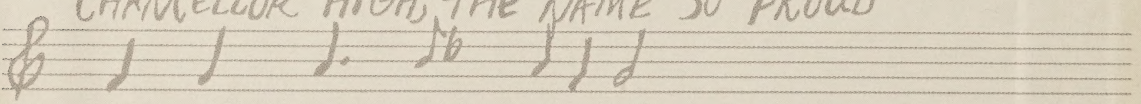
RAGING TO GLORY AS THE FUTURE FORETOLD



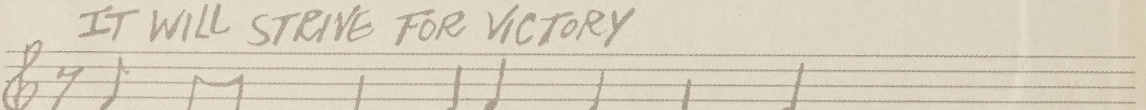
MAKE US CHERISH THESE MEMORIES SO RARE.



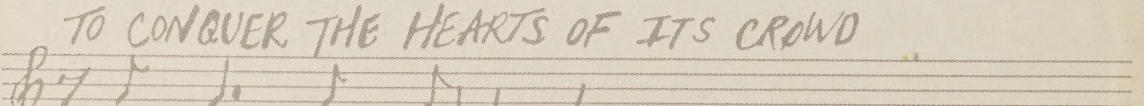
CHANCELLOR HIGH, THE NAME SO PROUD



IT WILL STRIVE FOR VICTORY



TO CONQUER THE HEARTS OF ITS CROWD



AND PROVE ITS ANCESTRY.

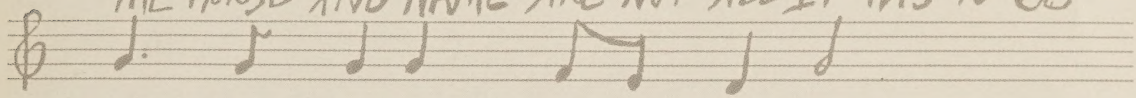
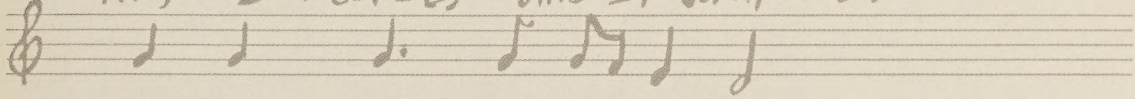
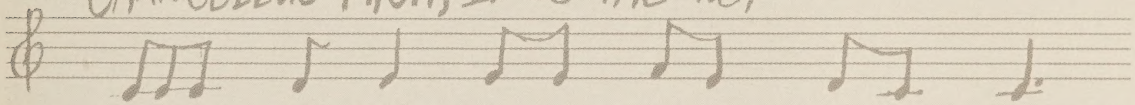
THE HORSE AND NAME ARE NOT ALL IT HAS TO BE



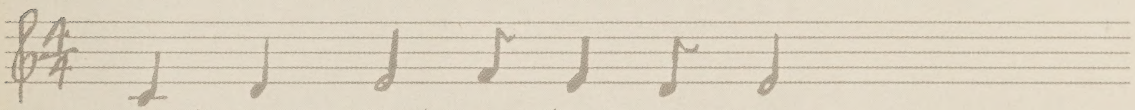
WE, THE PEOPLE, MAKE IT COMPLETE.



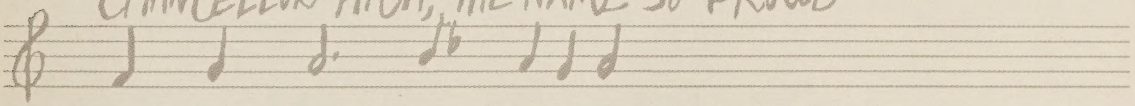
CHANCELLOR HIGH, IT IS THE KEY



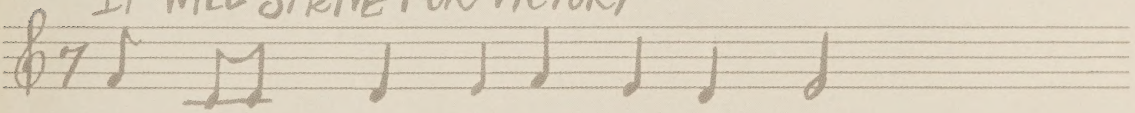
OPENING THE DOOR TO THE FUTURE WE WILL MEET.



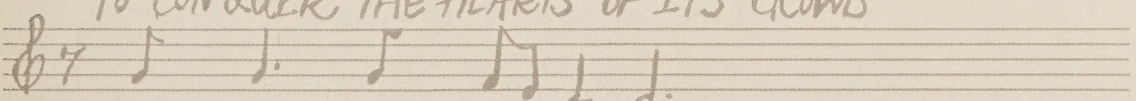
CHANCELLOR HIGH, THE NAME SO PROUD



IT WILL STRIVE FOR VICTORY



TO CONQUER THE HEARTS OF ITS CROWD



AND PROVE ITS ANCESTRY.

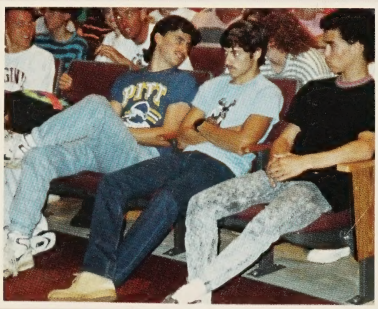
The Chargers Tune Up For Another Good Year

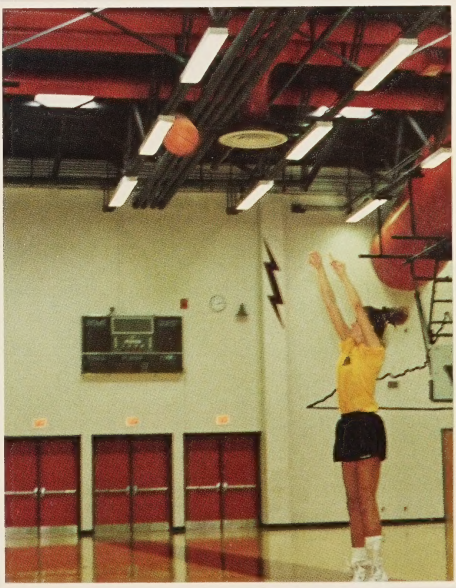
Student Life

Quote by "Living Color"

We're the cult of personality !

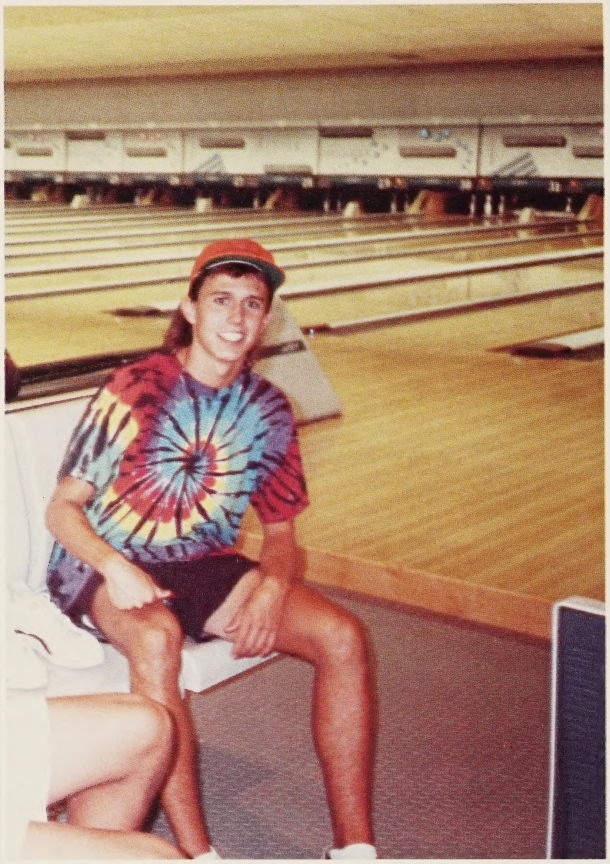


Practice, Pictures, And More Practice



Even when the doors of our school close for the summer some students are here for activities. The colorguard practices in the heat of summer to be ready for the first football game. Matt Cramer comes back into the dressing room after posing for his senior portrait. Joni Scelfo, Dara Adkinson, and Rebecca Gordon practice a cheerleading routine one summer night at Joni's house. Heather Anderson practices her free throw in the gym. The doors at Chancellor are open year round, not just from September to June.

It's Your Thing Do What You Wanna Do



People from Chancellor did many things over the summer. Andy Washburn went bowling, while Mrs. Rhodes enjoyed the rides at Kings Dominion. Andre Roman and Brock Winfrey worked on their tans while life guarding, and Courtney Harris and Melissa Lanceley braved the wild and went camping. Kara Cullum and Julie Fellinger went to cheerleading camp, and Melanie Clore took a turn at canoeing. Kia Winfrey practiced her diving form, and Jenifer Grochowski rested up for the start of school.

The summer of 1990 was a hot one and was filled with hot events. Not only did the Chargers do their fair share of interesting things, but people across the nation and around the world participated in exciting going-ons, too. Sports fans stayed in to watch soccer's World Cup, while others went out to see blockbusters Pretty Woman and Dick Tracy. Madonna and MC Hammer topped the record charts, and more than 100,000 people showed up for a concert and a rally on the Mall in Washington, DC to support Earth Day. With all this to do in one summer, Chargers really know how to have a good time.

If It's Wednesday It Must Be Florence

This summer a group of Latin students, Mrs. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Keith went to Italy. Chris Higgs eats lemon gelato at an outdoor cafe in Rome. From a tower, Dwight Peck looks out over the village of San Gimignano.

The Italian tour group stands over the city of Florence with the Ponte Vecchio and the Duomo in the background. Front row: Michelle Sanford, Melissa Lanceley, Amy Ashburn, Rebecca Gordon. Second row: Mrs. Keith, Mr. Keith, Dwight Peck, Amy Carmicheal, Mrs. Gordon. Third row: Ben Wharton, Andrew Willis, Chris Higgs, Ryan Melody, John Sielski

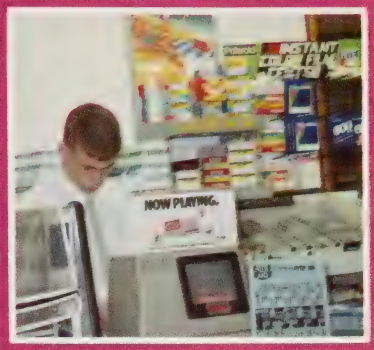
Rebecca Gordon, Michelle Sanford, and Andrew Willis float down the canals of Venice.

Amy Ashburn, Rebecca Gordon, Amy Carmicheal, and Dwight Peck sit on the shore of the Mediterranean on the island of Capri, while Ryan Melody cools off in the water.

Michelle Sanford, Ryan Melody, Amy Ashburn, Dwight Peck, and Chris Higgs wait to get into the Academy of Art.

Melissa Lanceley, Chris Higgs, Ryan Melody, and Dwight Peck wait on their boat to go into the Blue Grotto.

At A Day At The Mall



This summer many students spent their free time working in diferent stores in the Spotsylvania Mall, but a common disadvantage was having to serve your peers! At far left, Sarah Coleman changes out of her uniform after a hard day's work. Nyree Washington cleans up after shoppers like Kim McArtor and Heidi Manes, who are looking at a cosmetics counter. Ryan Carlin visits Kristina Gammage at work in Neptunes, and Pat Todd helps a customer at the cash register in Rite Aid. Chris Conley checks up on what's new in the music world while Kyra Dunn catches a bite to eat in Arby's. Patrick Eagles picks up trash for Legget's, and Missy Jones makes ice cream sundaes. There's something to be said for odd jobs!

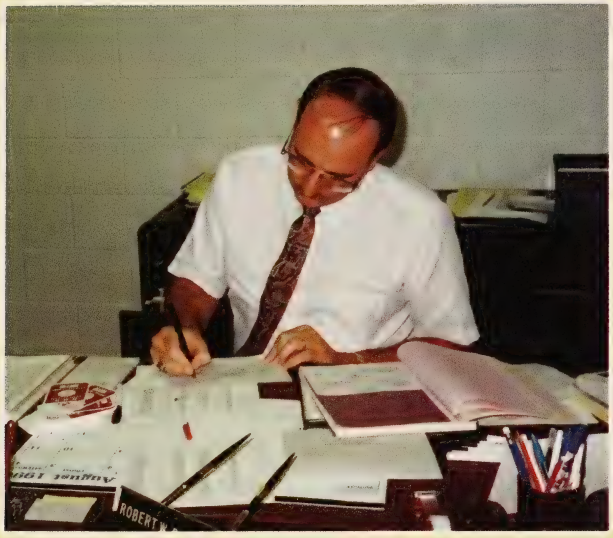
Back To Life Back To Reality



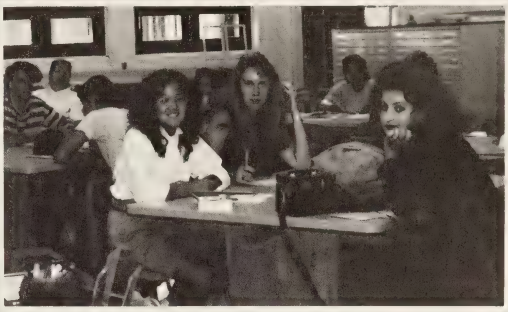
September 4th. A date we'd been dreading all summer. But once we all arrived on the first day of school, saw the people we missed all summer and our favorite teachers, and got a bit of Charger spirit from an assembly, we realized this year was filled with opportunity. Mr. Daniel, above left, fills out parking permits for anxious seniors, unlike freshman Roberta Herrel, who stretches out at the beginning of homeroom. Mrs. Bane also had a lot of paperwork accepting schedule changes in the guidance office. Senior Johanna Houck gets caught in the sunlight after leaving an assembly, where Lori Peterson, Melanie Clore, and Eddie Bernard showed us their senior pride. This year, seniors had the privilege of attending the first assembly on the first day of school. The assembly was designed to motivate students to do the best they could in the year to come. Hayes Meeks, Steven Craig, Will Rabke, and Brandon Blalock await the first period bell out side the school, as does Victor Wolfe, who waits to fill out the usual homeroom paperwork. With all this to do on the first day, we realized that the year was going to be filled with a lot of hard work.

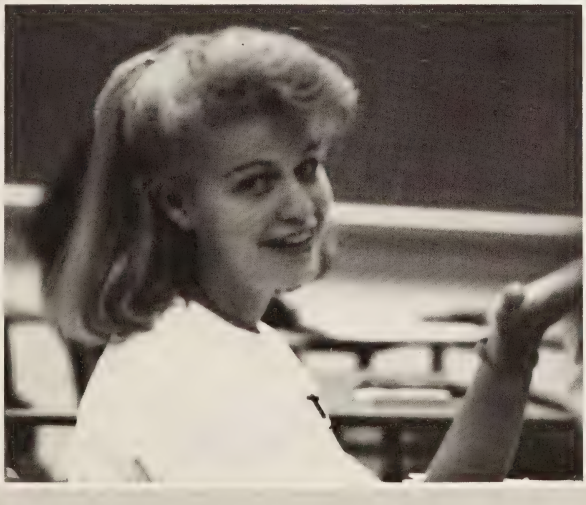
Quote by Bob Marley

Yourself And Don't Be No Drag

Chancellor High School possesses a unique mix of students which contributes to the conversion of a normal school day into an enjoyable opportunity for learning and socializing. Traci Manchester shows her agreement. Lunchtime is always exciting; Tyler Huntzinger enjoys lunch by feeding himself while Sarah Coleman gets, "... by with a little help from her friends." The new courtyard serves as a meeting place for friends. Lisa Mustra takes advantage of extra lunch time to finish homework, or is it a letter? Carol Marker graphically tells Melody Dunn a tale. Humor makes lunchtime fun. Tim Ballo shows his enthusiasm for Bart Simpson. Wait, Lee, Andy's not finished telling his joke.

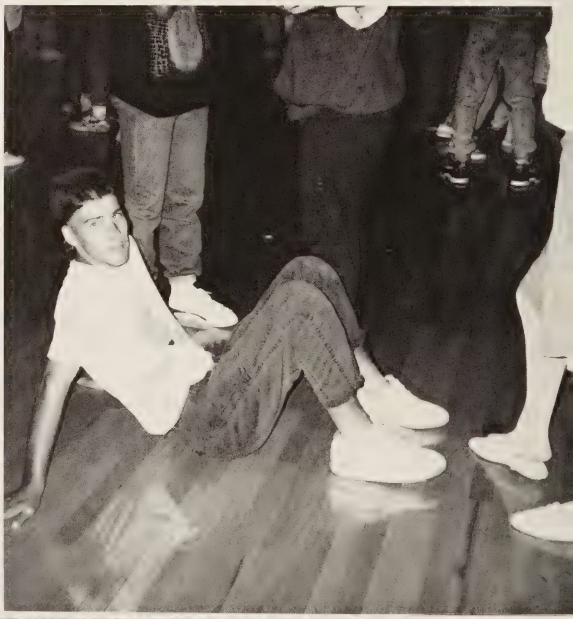
With Iraq's invasion of Kuwait, gas oil prices skyrocketed, and American soldiers were forced to leave American soil. But Chancellor students did their part in keeping spirits high. An Environmental Awareness club was formed, and the SCA sponsored letter writing to all branches of the service. Any student could participate in these activities and, support from the teachers was immeasureable.





Put On Your Red Shoes And Dance!!!

By, David Bowie



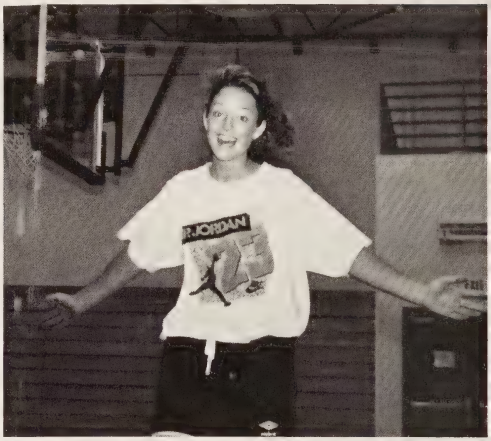
Get Down!

In the past the SCA has sponsored many informal dances; however, the most successful of these have proven to be the Wild Video Dance Parties. At such events a 400 square foot video screen and a pulsating sound system are assembled in the gymnasium. The SCA dance committee arrives to decorate, and during the dance they sell refreshments and encourage students to join in the fun of dancing. Music videos are played upon request. The video-jockeys try to play a wide range of videos; however, rap and rock ballads usually dominate.

Sean Pollard and his friends call others to join in their fun. Alice Childs takes her dancing very seriously, while Doug Cline takes a break from his dancing.

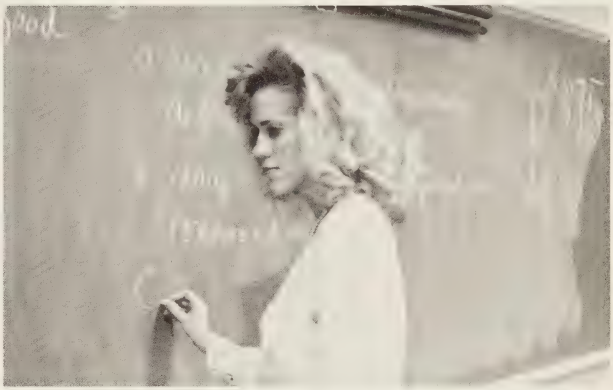
Aimee Brown dances on the conservative side, but Sammy Carter opts for a more physical style.

New Faces In The Chancellor Crowd



Foreign Exchange students Lotta Lysmark, Ole Dankert, and Kristine Hamsen were welcomed at a reception held by our PTSO. Brian Livesay, Jason Marcus, and David Marker head for the Freshman Assembly. Joy Mulheron has enthusiam for gym class. Jamie Keddie relaxes before school begins. Amy Ciuffreda finds her way on the first day of school.

On the next page, Natalie Pearman and Jennifer Grochowski flash a grin at the camera. Freshmen learn all the rules in an extended homeroom. New teachers such as Mrs. Gregory are also welcomed at Chancellor. Jamie Fellinger waits around before school. Eric Brendle buys a yearbook from Jennifer Shoemaker. Leigh Richards and Anne Ntouskas show their school spirit.



New Faces, Page 21

We Will,
We Will,
Rock You!

Even when reaching new heights, as Kara Cullum demonstrates in her Grateful Dead gear and tie-dye, Chargers do it in style. Fashions that have dominated the halls this year included everything from tie-dyes and bauhaus to good old Hard Rock Cafe tee-shirts and denim. Shoes became a main accessory and bright sneakers were always seen dancing by. Whether just for a day of school or a night out, Chargers always look ready to paint the town red.

HARD ROCKERS: Jason DeBellonia, Shane Culliton, Angie Richardson, Chris Stiles, Leah LaCourse, Amy McGlone, and Joshua Raine.

Jason Debellonia, Anne Heden, and Kyle Ryan unite their shirts from around the world.

FANCY FEET: Daniel Steiniger, Ryan Nissim-Sabat, Brett Johnson, Johanna Houck, and Carla Culbertson show off current trends in footwear.

HEAR NO EVIL, SPEAK NO EVIL, SEE NO EVIL: The only thing Kelly Gronau, Geoff Schwartzman, and Angie Richardson are guilty of is wearing their HARD ROCK CAFE shirts on the same day.

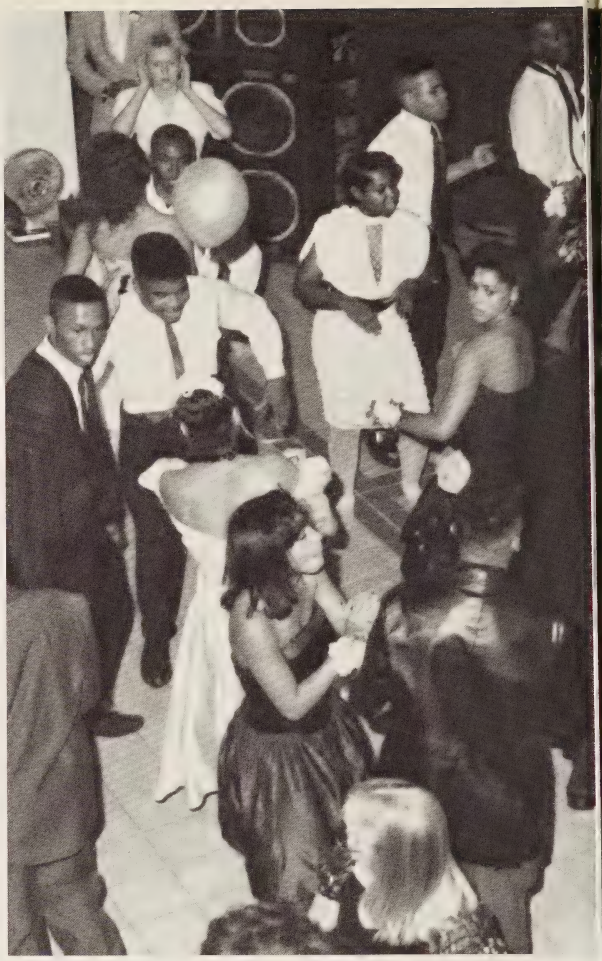
The Legends Live On . . . Chancellor Chargers And James Bond

Homecoming 1990



This year's Homecoming theme, "The Legends Live On . . ." was quite appropriate for a school that is always leaving new legends. In the week leading up to the Homecoming dance, the SCA sponsored many activities to help get students psyched up for Homecoming weekend. On Friday, October 12, students could paint lightning bolts on their faces to show the football team support for that night's football game with Courtland. Students braved sitting in the rain to see Chancellor beat Courtland 27 to 0. This game moved the football team from ninth to sixth in the state, and they landed in the Washington Post Sports section's top D.C./Metropolitan area teams. Monday, October 15 was designed "Tacky Tie Day", and on the 16th hats were allowed to be worn during school. Wednesday was Class Day, and each class president chose some sort of outfit or accessory for their class to wear. Freshmen wore sunglasses, Sophomores wore bandanas, Juniors wore togas, and the Senior class wore dressy clothes with a twist of their own usual casual style. That night Chancellor held its first bonfire to celebrate our (assumed) victory over Culpepper. Thursday was school colors day, and during seventh period, the cheerleaders led a pep rally. Friday night was the Homecoming parade followed by the game with the Culpepper Blue Devils. At half-time Mr. Winston crowned the 1990 Homecoming Queen and King, Tonia Letzo and Shawn Szakelyhidi.

Homecoming weekend was finished out Saturday night with the dance in the main lobby, "Diamonds Are forever." It lasted from eight until midnight and was deejayed by Jimmy Oliver of East Coast Entertainment. Dress was semi-formal, so dresses were required for the ladies and ties for the gentlemen. With so much to do in one week, it was a Homecoming few would forget!

This year Chancellor conducted its first bonfire. Stephanie Hubble welcomed everyone, then the festivities began. While the cheerleaders led the cheers, an effigy of a Culpeper Blue Devil was burned. A skit was performed by the Varsity football players. Parents of the band members sold concessions. There was a successful turnout.

The Homecoming parade floats were to be constructed within the James Bond theme. Movie titles were used for the individual float themes. Winners included:
MOST CREATIVE: FBLA
MOST ORIGINAL: Freshman Class
BEST INTERPRETATION OF THEME: Science Club
BEST OVERALL: Latin Club

Chancellor came into the homecoming game ranked sixth in the state after the previous week's 27 to 0 victory over Courtland. The final score of this Charger versus the Culpepper Blue Devils game was 21 to 0, the second consecutive shut-out game of the season. This win lifted the Chargers to number nineteen to the Washington Post's Top High School Football Teams list. Presently the Chargers have never lost a regular season home game. WAY TO GO CHARGERS!

At Saturday's dance, the 1990 Homecoming court was presented. Freshman attendants were Matt Hopkins, Noelle Cramer, Ryan Malocha, and Shannon Sullivan. Sophomores were Howard Kohl, Heather Anderson, Kim McArtor, and Curtis White. Juniors were Rodney Bryant, Monica Dunn, Kristie Tyndall, and Mike Morrison. Seniors were Michelle Kohl, Troy Robinson, Christian Culbertson, Charles Beasley, Wendy Seats, Freddie Lamb, Tonia Letzo, Shawn Szakelyhidi, Annie Smalling, Chris Harris, Carrie Early, T.J. Jackson, and Jenna Van Zandt. Not pictured was Senior attendant Andy Washburn.

Geepers Creepers! Where'd You Get Those Peepers?

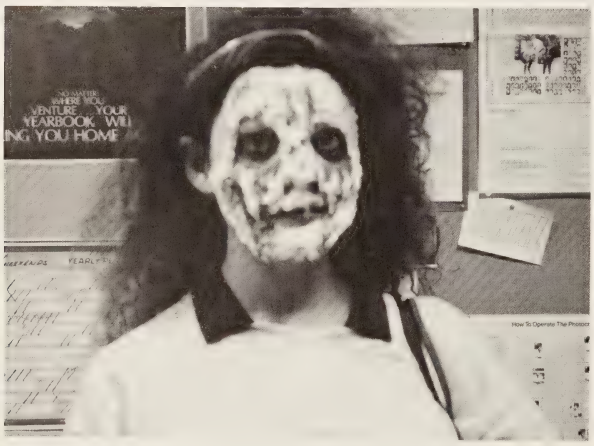
Halloween

The SCA sponsored Halloween Dress-up day, which gave many students (and teachers, too!) a chance to come to school dressed in ways one normally wouldn't feel comfortable. Take for example these three girls. Robin Lahommedieu, Karen Thomas, and Angie Wood are quite comfortable in their P.J.'s and slippers. Dressing up as a baby was very popular for many of Chancellor's student body. Costumes were judged, and awards were given on each of the three lunch shifts. Prizes ranged from jumbo cookies or candy to gift certificates to many of the restaurants in Spotsylvania Mall including Arby's, Chic-fil-A, Friendly's, and Aladdin's Castle.

Winners from the first lunch shift included: Amy Stafford and Julie Kang as a comedy-tragedy, Marie Hass as a mummy, and Chris Hubbard as a clown. Kathy Gray won for best overall on first shift as a cow.

The second lunch shift winners were: Iris Ortega as a scary face, Mrs. Stello as a witch, Carrie Nerone as Mickey Mouse, and Shannon Brown as an angel. Matt Sullins, dressed as a werewolf, won for best overall, second shift.

Winners from the third lunch shift were: Nyree Washington as a fox, Jesse Aversa as Frankenstein, and Erik Brown as a guy dressed as a girl. Suzan Moran won as best overall for thir lunch shift as a pumpkin. Matt Sullins won best overall.



Iris Ortega's "scary face" won her a prize for the most original and creative costume on the second lunch shift. Iris made her "face" by melting marshmallows, applying them to her face and then adding grains of rice. A definite original.

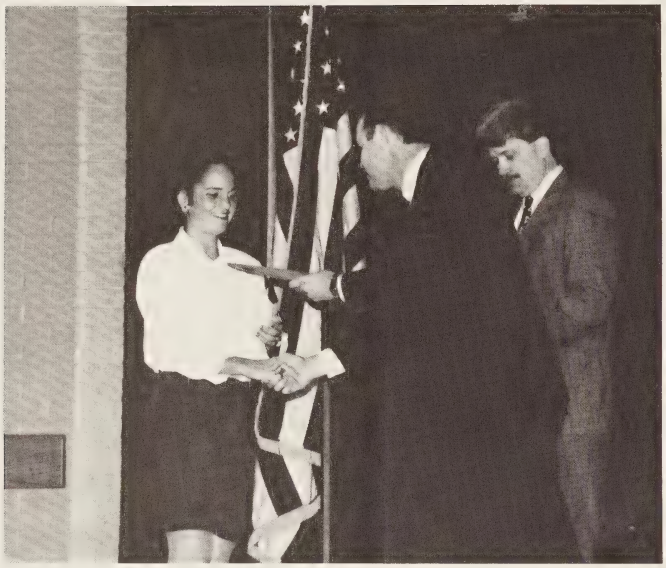
Here, Marie Haas, Kathy Gray, and Becky Foley await for the judges' decision on costume prize winners during the first lunch shift. Judges were Mrs. Devall, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Painter, and Mr. Stableford. They decided on winners for each of the four categories.

Although there were "traditional" Halloween costumes, many students chose to dress up as characters from popular TV shows. Here are two examples from FOX network's In Living Color and The Simpsons. Both characters are known for their sarcastic antics. Homey the Clown always tells small children, "Homey don't play that," but Bart Simpson chooses a more easy going approach like "Don't have a cow, man!" Either way, both shows have topped the ratings.

Nyree Washington hands Matt Sullins a free movie pass for his win as best costume on the second lunch shift. Matt later won best overall for his werewolf costume. Above, Angie Battiste smiles beneath her hobo costume. She's waiting with Erik Brown who won the cutest/prettiest category.

Chancellor celebrated two holidays on October 31st, Halloween and Mr. Bane's fourtieth birthday. Mr. Bane celebrated with some students over cake. Other students from the FFA, FBLA, DECA, and TSA aided the FHA in sposoring a Halloween night party for students from Battlefield Elementary and faculty members' children.

It's A Matter Of Honor



Above left: Christian Culbertson was among a few students who received a Student of the Month award. Above right: Mr. Winston introduced the speakers to open the assembly.

On October 23, Chancellor High School's annual academic letter assembly was held. There were many seniors, juniors, and sophomores who received academic letters — or bars for those students who had already received letters. School Board member Ann Giglio and Ayanna Bryant, last year's National Honor society president, spoke at the assembly. Congratulations to all who received letters!

Mr. Winston hands Ricky Leftwich his academic letter while National Honor Society members Art Canizare and Etta Agan look on.

These Students Are Into "Heavy Metal"

Many of Chancellor's students attend classes at the Spotsylvania Vocational Center. Though it is located at Courtland High School, all three of the area's high schools send students there.

Vocational classes include a wide variety of topics such as carpentry, printing, auto body, practical nursing, air conditioning, auto mechanics, masonry, culinary arts, cosmetology, drafting, electricity, and metal trade. These classes run three periods long and are in morning and afternoon shifts.

Although the largest enrollment in a vocational class by Chancellor students is seven, Chancellor enrollment averages about five or six students, with the total class of thirty comprised of students from the other schools.

George Merryman works on "heavy metal" in metal shop.

These students work hard on a car while another student lays brick during morning vocational classes.

Jingle Bell, Jingle Bell,

The holiday season brings joy for many. Mr. Carroll, Mrs. Easley, and Mrs. Stewart express their joy by joining hands around the guidance office Christmas tree.

Inside the guidance office was not the only place a decorated tree could be found. The I.C.C. decorated a tree in the main lobby for students to enjoy. (Fully decorated tree is at right.)

At the top of the page, students rock the night away at the Christmas dance.

And in the true spirit of the season, the chorus sang at a Christmas concert held here.

Jingle Bell Rock!

Although the beginning of the Christmas season wasn't that cold this year and the hopes of a white Christmas were lost, it did snow two days after the holiday. Once again a wintry scene delighted us on the first Monday of 1991.

Besides occasional snow, Christmas brings many people fresh baked delicious goodies for friends and family to enjoy. Mr. Carroll spots a gingerbread house displayed in the office and is tempted to gobble it up.

A delightful Christmas play was put on by the Drama III students. The actors enlightened our moods as they prepared us for the holiday season. Cast members include Karen Wright, Jen Fell, Julie Scelfo, Ruby Thomas, Carrie Nerone, Julian Perry, Roxanne Dean, Melanie Clore, Kristen Walden, Kelley Gaddis, and Briton Green.

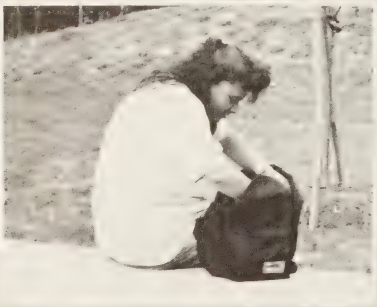
ACADEMICS

I've got the power !!!



The Principal

Mr. John Winston's main goal for this year is to continue the outsanding achievements of the first two years. He feels that Chancellor should be known for the balance of its activities — community service, sports, as well as academics.

Mr. Winston is proud of the students' involvement and of how quickly they have formed their own identity. The students now realize that Chancellor is known state-wide and have become more serious and determined.

Mr. Winston received his B.A. at Randolph-Macon College and then his Masters at the University of Virginia.

Before being principal of Chancellor High, he taught math at Spotsylvania, and was also principal of Chancellor Elementary, Spotswood Elementary, and Battlefield Intermediate. The success of Chancellor is due largely to the contributions he has made to the school.

Vice Principals

Mr. Marra feels fortunate to be Vice Principal of Chancellor High School. He strongly attributes Chancellor's academic and athletic success to a hard-working student body, supportive parents, and an excellent staff of teachers and faculty.

Mr. Marra has been in education for fourteen years and professes that Chancellor students are amazingly well-behaved, despite the school's large population.

In his third year as Vice Principal of Chancellor High School, Mr. Daniel hopes to see a maximum number of student involvement in school sponsored activities. He has faith that strong student leaders will encourage their peers to take advantage of such beneficial opportunities. Stating that an impressively large percentage of Chancellor's students are hardworking and earnestly care for their school, Mr. Daniel believes that this goal will be achieved.

Mr. Daniel has been in education for over twenty years and continues as Vice Principal of Chancellor High.

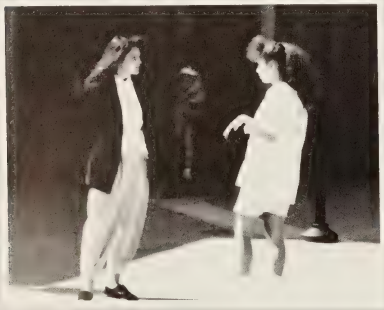
WHO'S WHO

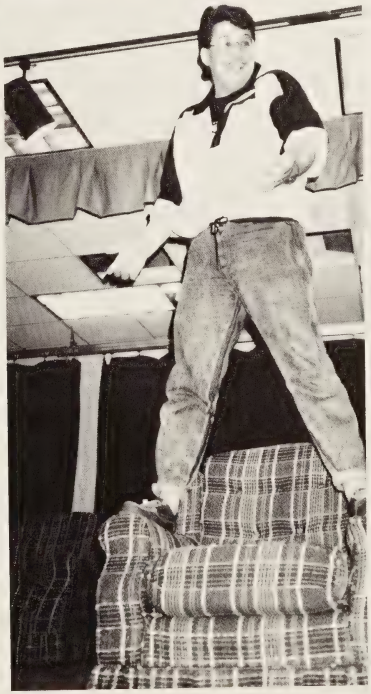
Tomor- row people, where is your best?



The Class Of Nineteen Ninety-one

The Class of 1991 began the school year with its own special style — not too formal, if you please! No one can accuse our graduating seniors of being stuffed shirts or snobs. They've proven themselves to be unique, from their "dressed up" look on Class Day to their secret float ("Oye!") for Homecoming, they have finished their last year at Chancellor in Charger style. These graduates will begin futures in all walks of life and attend colleges in many states, but they shall always remain Chancellor's indomitable Class of 1991.

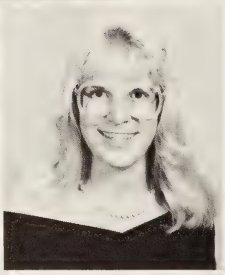
Seniors

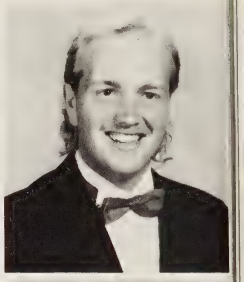


Everyone gets into the act in our Senior class. Carrie Early answers (in her own way) the question, "What's for lunch today?" Chris Harris, Shawn Szakelyhidi, and Anthony Thomas portray senior comradeship; and Chuck Berry does a Bart Simpson imitation in Drama.

The Class Of 1991

Etta M. Agan Loves her horses, riding, running, animals. Winners never quit and quitters never win.
Michael K. Anderson Likes his Spitfire. The only thing better than coming in late is an early dismissal.
Anita M. Anthony "Meter" Likes friends. Shew-baby!
Joseph C. Armstrong





Elizabeth Lynn Artman
Heidi A. Ashton Likes travel, friends, canoe trips, music, laughs. Life is a great adventure or nothing at all.
Lee N. Atkins "Re" Likes showing off, being obnoxious. Practice makes perfect so I don't have to practice.
Kenneth B. Baile Likes soccer and The Dead. Listen to river sing sweet songs to rock my soul.

Robert V. Baker Today is only yesterday's tomorrow.
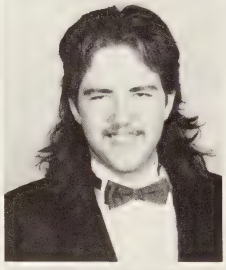
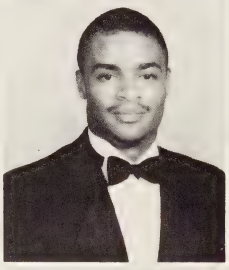
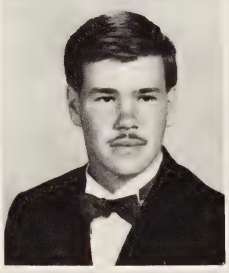
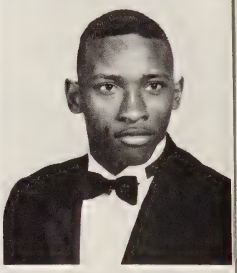
Jamie D. Banks
William B. Bass "Bart" Likes Jenny, Hoyas, my limo, Get Busy, Guess jeans. I'm outta here like a jet C-ya!
Charles P. Beasley









Robert J. Beer "Beaner" Likes fishing and hunting. The South shall rise again!
David H. Bennett Likes muscles, Elmer Fudd, Mrs. Combs' 5th period. Treat me like the big daddy I am!
Kelly L. Berube We've only just begun to live, white lace and promises, a kiss for luck and we're on our way!
Adam M. Bettis "Bloodworm" Likes wrestling. Mess with the best, get pinned like the rest.

Michelle L. Blackwelder One life is over, another begins; but as time goes on, the music never ends.
Dianna Nadean Blair "Dee-Dee" Likes the summer of 88-89. Thanks Mom and Dad. I love you!
Justin M. Blight Likes Mozart, drama, English romanticists. So, what are you trying to say?
Aaron M. Book Likes Hondas, girls, Young Life. Life is like a puzzle; everything fits together in the end.

The senior class banner is a direct representation of the senior class; it is impressive. Making the banner required the seniors to combine into the one project the creative talents which they have exhibited individually for many years. The class of 1991 definitely utilized their diversified talents to create a successful school year.

From the moment they entered Chancellor High School as sophomores, the seniors worked tenaciously to establish the school's favorable reputation among other schools. Taking advantage of every bit of good fortune that befalls them, the seniors will undoubtedly establish themselves outside of high school and into the community after they graduate.

Edwin W. Bourne Likes Stacey Who knows but life be that which men call death and what men call life.

Joe Brennan "Joe-Bobs" Likes Information Society, the Cure.

Jodi Brown Likes good friends, 5th period gossip, 3rd lunch. A smile is a reward to all who receive it.

Michael M. Brown "Mikey" Likes football, weekends. Hard work never hurt anyone so why risk it.

Shannon R. Brown "Blondie" Likes to dance and shop. I didn't do anything wrong; I'm never wrong, remember!

Stacy L. Brown

Chris F. Bruley "Hey Bruley". Likes surfing, Virginia Beach. So, what are you trying to say?

Christopher M. Burch Likes Heathers, Hendrix, Woody A. I don't believe in Beatles, I just believe in me. J.L.

Melody L. Burchett "Mel" Loves Greg S. Heaven will be no Heaven to me if I do not meet my love here.

Tyrone Byrd "Rone" Likes nice girls — hates "garden-tools" Well I guess some are OK See ya Corey n frenzs

Melanie P. Clore "Mel" Likes her conv., Jenn's doughnuts. Life I love you, all is groovy.
Ted S. Cognata Likes Swartz's house and toilet, Floyd. Strange things are afloat at the circle K!
Sarah A. Coleman Likes art, twisters, and Sundays. Art does not reproduce the visible; it makes visible.
Martha E. Collins "Marcie" Likes the male race and her Z. Live life while you have it cuz it's not coming back.

The Senior Sponsor

Leading the seniors is Mrs. Rita Mullins, class sponsor. Mrs. Mullins is also a teacher of College Prep English for grades 11 and 12, and a teacher of Advanced Placement English.

She has a Bachelor of Arts degree in English, theater, history, and religion. Her teaching background includes teaching in Stafford, Arlington, and Dickenson counties.

Mrs. Mullins will help the seniors to raise money through many activities such as the Senior T-shirt sale. Raising this money is very important for the seniors to pay for their graduation ceremony and banquet.

"Leaders Of The Pack"

Valerie M. Cooke Likes dance, bears, that special someone. To everyone who's ever been there — thanks!
Robert S. Cowan
Matthew J. Cramer "Matt" Likes the bodacious Melissa and running. I intend to design the world.
Matthew S. Criswell "Matt" Likes football. Does it ever end?

Robert M. Deffner Likes volleyball, cartoons, video games, and girls! One being's junk is another's art.
Brandon S. Delano
Rebecca L. DeShazo "Speckles" Likes horses. Reality should be yesterday's dreams.

Senior Board

The Senior Board members organize many social activities for their classmates, such as the Senior Banquet. They also prepare fundraisers for the graduation party, the banquet, and the ceremony. Without them, the Class of 1991 would be lacking organization for their numerous activities.

The students elected to serve on the Senior Board are: President, Christian Culbertson; Vice President, Michelle Kohl, Secretary, Sarah Coleman; Treasurer, Ruby Thomas; Reporter-historian, Emma Wilson; Members, Adam Bettis, Jodi Brown, Melanie Clore, Jon Fletcher, Creighton Frizzel, Chris Harris, Johanna Houck, Stephanie Hubble, Ben Jackson, Tonia Letzo, Michelle Lewis, Shannon MacNamee, Carrie Nerone, Andy Piper, Geoff Schwartzman, Karen Sharpless, Annie Smalling, Bryan Smith, Amey Talbert, Angie Treadaway, Tiffany Underhill, Andy Washburn.

Environmentally Minded

Many seniors have taken an active interest in preserving the environment during the course of the year, especially those involved in the Environmental Awareness Club. This club takes much of its time to collect glass, aluminum cans, and other recyclables, and then donates the profits to RFA. They also help Hi-Y and Key Club in their road clean-ups. Actually, their impact is immeasurable. More students are beginning to recycle, which not only benefits the school, but the earth as well.

Right: Some of the seniors involved in environmental work are Heidi Ashton, Tiffany Reed, Lisa Ray, Emma Wilson, Wendy Seats, Kristy Henderson, Karen Wright, Anthony Williams, Andy Washburn, Lee Atkins, and Jon Ramsey.

Matthew Heden Send my credentials to the house of detention.

Kristy M. Henderson "Flip" Likes Hotel California, "Crazy," bowling (HA), Nags Head. Love is merely a madness.

The spirit of this year's seniors is powerful. They are always the loudest at pep rallies, and the winners of spirit contests. Let's face it, when it comes to spirit, no one can beat the class of 1991.

During the football season, spirits rise. At the first pep rally, seniors wore graduation caps made in their government classes to show their spirit and pride in being a senior. During football games, seniors gather with their friends and cheer the football players on. Seniors definitely have spirit!

Senior Spirit

Practice Makes Perfect

Tammy Griffith, one of the many seniors in the band, gets ready for a half-time show. Preparing for their shows, competitions, and parades requires band members to start practicing from the end of the summer until the end of the football season. Seniors in the band devote most of their time to making their last season as performers in the Lightning Regiment a rewarding one.

Bryon W. Kile "Bill" Likes Amy, weekends, Bud. I am out of here. Later!
James M. Kitchen Likes skateboarding. Stand for something or you will fall for everything. Live clean, live large.

Tammy E. Lamb Likes friends, being a senior, the mall. There is no reason not to be the best.

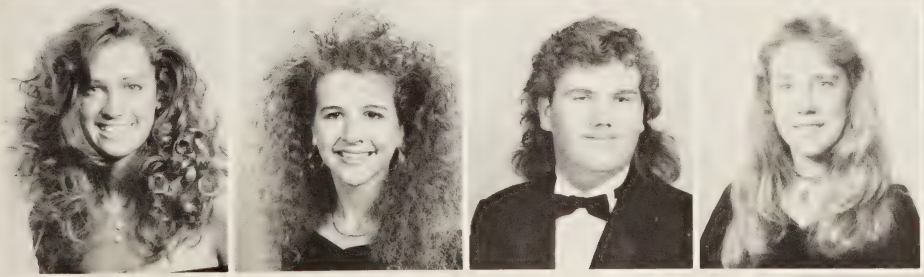
Dedicated Seniors

Senior Honors

On Senior Honors Night, many band members, cheerleaders, and football players were asked to stand with their parents during halftime. These students were honored not only because they were seniors, but for their many accomplishments in the past four years.

These seniors had many trials to overcome, some having outside jobs to contend with along with studies.

Some of the band members posed for pictures with their parents: Danielle Statton (top), Aaron Book (far left), and Larry Fontenot (left).



Lisa A. Lambrecht Likes long walks, thunderstorms. The fat lady has sung.

Roger R. Landeck

Ace G. Laserna "Guanzon" Likes tennis, the beach. Better hated for what you are than loved for what you're not.

Jeff S. McCullough Likes girls, b-ball, times with the Posse. If you don't like it, learn to love it.

Students gather the first day of school, anxiously awaiting their day to begin. Some seniors may reflect upon their past years at Chancellor and ask themselves, "Am I really a senior?"

Some seniors may also question, "What exactly is a senior? Am I treated any differently than before?" A senior can be defined as one more advanced in years, rank, or standing. As for the years, seniors are definitely older, having been in school thirteen years, the seniors deserve to be ranked highly. As for the standing, a senior has many privileges that underclassmen do not.

The most important aspect of being a senior, however, is the ability to mold their futures. Filling out college applications and scholarship forms are just two of the things seniors must accomplish in order to gain acceptance into the college of their choice. With all the work that must be done, it is surprising that seniors succeed so well. The Class of 1991, however, is a strong-willed, determined group with bright futures ahead.

Matthew A. McGurl "Matt" Likes late nights under the stars. The wrong ways always seem to be reasonable.
Tamara L. McCum Likes animals, New Zealand. To live without feeling is to breathe without air.

Nargis Nassiri
Carrie L. Nerone Likes David, March 14, 1989, Best Friends, girls' night out.. I'm lauffing!!!

College Bound

Andy Washburn pauses from his busy schedule for a moment. This year, seniors discovered what the word "busy" truly means. The last year of school is thought to be an easy one, but the class of 1991 has discovered otherwise.

Why are seniors busy? Since it's the year most colleges will focus on, seniors try to cram as much in their schedule as possible. Weighted classes, sports, clubs, and community activities are common examples of what colleges look for. And, of course, seniors can't forget that twelfth grade is the last year to take SAT's if they want to start college next fall.

Charging Ahead

Duy M. Nguyen "Yee" Life is but a dream. If you have not succeeded in life, then just keep on dreaming.
Melody H. Norris
Mark A. Ograbisz It's about time! It could only have been done right in '91!

Lori L. Peterson Loves Erich, Amey, Ed. A man is never so weak as when a woman tells him how strong he is.

Senior Charm

Seniors T.J. Jackson and Chris Harris enjoy another meal together, eating and talking about the events of the day. Lunchtime isn't the only place that seniors catch up on recent occurrences. During classes, between periods, and in the library, seniors are caught chattering about grades, teachers, friends, and weekend plans.

Despite an occasional glare from a disapproving teacher, the seniors still persist. A popular response may be, "But . . . it's too important to wait!" This can only cause more of a conflict; however, with charming seniors and understanding teachers, the problem develops into a light-hearted teasing.

Andrew G. Piper "Pipe" Likes soccer, Hendrix, Floyd. Come on you painter, you piper, you prisoner — and shine.
Sean O. Pollard "Vex" Likes clubvibes and "rhythms." Mental depth goes beyond abysmal — my fathom is infinity.
Emily A. Pritchard Likes MWC field hockey! We are a bright dawn whose rays have just risen above the clouds.

Kristen L. Smith "Russ" Likes hockey, softball, Fridays. Works for me!
Teresa L. Sotzing "Psycho" Likes to tail cadillacs and drink Coke. I don't know and I don't really care.

"Active" Seniors

As students become seniors, they start thinking about college. One common thought is to become involved in extracurricular activities, such as sports, which looks good on college applications and provides organizational and leadership skills.

Extracurricular activities also educate students in teamwork, a necessity in college. Seniors thereby become more united, knowing that they are a part of a team, learning and growing together.

At left, Andy Piper and Tiffany Reed, members of the newspaper staff, laugh together as they work together.

Keith T. Southall "Keith" Likes hunting, working on cars, drag racing.
Byron C.T. Spicer Likes beach, Hawaii, soccer, tennis. If you don't lose, you don't learn.
Andy R. Stafford Likes money. The mistakes of the past are the teachings of tomorrow.

Amey A. Talbert Loves M Hutchence. Fithe I'll stop the world and wheet w/ V, it's so groovy it's outta sight!

First Day Of School

It's the first day of school! Freshmen pull out crumpled maps from their pockets, weaving their ways through unknown halls. Sophomores look at the freshmen and think, "Thank goodness that is over!" Juniors look at the seniors and wish they were in their last year of school, too. But seniors — what are they thinking and doing?

Seniors are found lining up in front of Mr. Daniel's office, eagerly awaiting their turn to get a valuable parking permit. Some are perhaps not as eager as others, for they could have been one of the privileged juniors who had a parking space last year.

The words "privileged" and "senior" go hand-in-hand. Seniors enjoy many extras, such as going to lunch five minutes early, entering pep rallies while the underclassmen honor them by standing, the before-mentioned parking permits, and the all-time favorite — SENIORS RULE THE SCHOOL.

Tyler S. Theriot Likes soccer. It's a matter of weight distribution. A 5-ounce swallow can't carry a 1-lb coconut.

Anthony D. Thomas "Fox" Likes B-Ball, Erica T. Life is a game. You just have to learn to play it!

Ruby Thomas "Rub" Likes flatworms, polkadots. Don't laff. It could happen to you!

Jason R. Titus "Jay" Ain't that something on a stick.

Jill M. Todd There are three things in life that shouldn't get broken . . . toys, hearts, and promises.

R. Patrick Todd "Wall" Thank God I made it!

Amy M. Townsend "Mimi" Likes friends, family, and the thought of going to college. Yo, Russ.

M. Amy Traveller "Aimer-Lou" Likes cheering, art, NKOTB. It's kinda crazy, Yo! Let's get some doughnuts.

Senior Smiles

Seniors Corey Hamm and Jeff McCullough make good use of their short lunch period to laugh about the events of the day. Seniors can enjoy having private conversations this year because they have their own section in the cafeteria. Although their privilege is not always honored by underclassmen, the seniors still enjoy the time spent together.

Angela S. Treadaway "Angie" Likes field hockey, BMW's, Chicago studs, late night gang. See ya at 1:00 AM.
Kenneth G. Tuebner "Tuebsteak" Likes his hat, baseball, Ang and Nik, and salads. No Freddy, just one more, OK?
Raquel R. Tullis "Fahvergnugen" Likes Mike Hoover, GEO Storms, and spaghetti. Be wise and think first!
Tiffany A. Underhill "Undie" Likes Mike B., B-ball, the "Dragon," and hot chocolately warm.

License To Kill

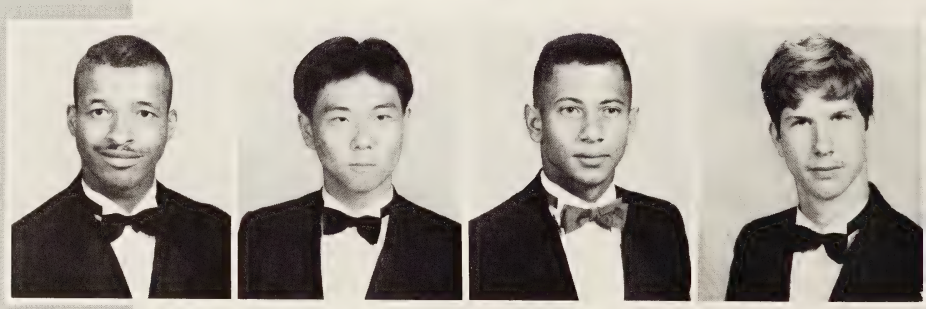
Homecoming '90

The senior class definitely flashed its "license to kill" many times this year. Demonstrating leadership in academics and athletics, the class of 1991 proves itself to be a dominating force at Chancellor High, just as its homecoming float portrays.

The entire student body appreciated the seniors' excitement at the homecoming football game. Raising the bleachers with spirit chants, they created a joyful atmosphere for the fans. Homecoming '90 is best described with a single word, coined by the senior class and adopted by all other students — "OYE!"

Because of ties in the election for senior class homecoming court attendants, seven couples, rather than five, represented the class of 1991. They were: Christian Culbertson and Charles Beasley, Carrie Early and T.J. Jackson, Michelle Kohl and Shawn Szakelyhidi, Wendy Seats and Freddie Lamb, Annie Smalling and Chris Harris, and Jenna Van Zandt and Andy Washburn.

Taking part in homecoming festivities, seniors proudly display their float. Homecoming court attendants Wendy Seats, Freddie Lamb, Carrie Early, and T.J. Jackson, ride in style.



Clarence L. Winston
Sean S. Woo He who has come through the fire will not fade in the sun. Break on through to the other side.
Rodney T. Woodward "Woody" Likes football. Fellas, to be the man, you got to beat the man.
Charles W. Wotring "Chuck" Likes his ricerocket, a day without worry, Big Macs. Have fun!

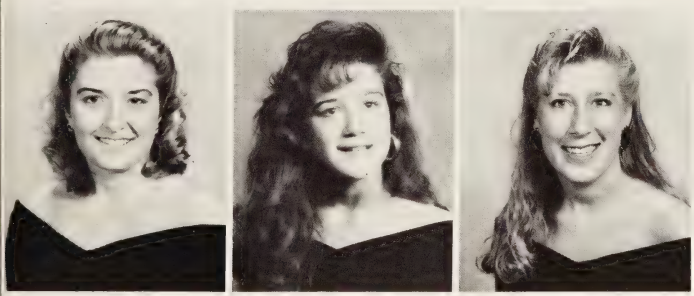
Seniors On The Right Course

Ask any senior how difficult their studies have been during the course of the year and one would probably say, "On a scale of 1 to 10, I give them a 12."

The seniors have experienced many highs and lows with their schoolwork, with difficulty levels dependent on the individual. Some of the hardest courses include A.P. classes such as government, English, calculus, computer science, and level five language classes. With research papers, book reviews, and lengthy assignments, most seniors find it more difficult to socialize.

Some students, however, find time for extracurricular activities, and even offer help as aides. Heidi Ashton, for example, takes her study hall period to help out in the library (pictured left). Others work in the office, on the newspaper staff, in guidance, or on the yearbook staff.

Through all of the stress and frustration however, students do find time to talk with friends between classes and at lunch. During the course of the year, the seniors have developed a closeness unique to all other classes. They share a common bond due to the stress of the year and the times shared.



Karen M. Wright "McGruff" Likes The 4-Kays, Nags Head, Granny's. The race is to the driven not the swift.
Michelle R. Young Likes Best Friends, reading. Ever since the first time I saw you . . .
Traci L. Zerler Likes photography, snow skiing, shopping. We're finally finished, Class of 1991!

The Class Of Nineteen Ninety-two

This year's junior class blasted into the year with confidence and initiative. Secure in the knowledge that they could do all they wished to do this year, they set about to raise money that goes to the prom, floats, with some left over to begin graduation plans. The graduating class of 1991 is very special to Chancellor, for they represent the first class to attend C.H.S. for four years. In fact, on their banner is the motto, "Class of '92, First to go through," surrounded by handprints of the students as freshmen.

Juniors

Part of what makes the junior class so vibrant is the talent of students such as Karen Thorburn, who performs a trumpet solo during halftime. Sometimes juniors such as Kyle Ryan and Krisha Mills take a moment at lunchtime to think. However, Julie Sclefo's hard work on decorations and floats for homecoming portrays best what makes this class so special.

Juniors Have Many Faces

Students face many tasks during their junior year. Classes are getting harder. They must take the PSAT's and start thinking about colleges. Juniors also have to think about raising enough money to have a prom.

But, juniors also get some privileges, like being able to drive. This year there were so many people who wanted to drive that the lower parking lot behind the tennis courts had to be opened.

Jackie Brand sits playing with her drumsticks on the bandroom floor.

Donald Funai and P.J. Brothers show their spirit on Hat Day.

Jeremiah Ivan, "king" of the juniors, talks about fundraising at a Junior Class Board meeting.

All At Once

It is during the fall of their junior year that most students try to compensate for lack of participation in extra-curricular activities. With the realization that the Honor Society will soon be nominating candidates for membership and that next year college applications will need to be padded with information about club involvement, juniors rush to fill out numerous applications.

You Got A Friend

High school is an opportunity to build strong and lasting friendships. Inevitably, struggling through a difficult class together with a group of one's peers can bring everyone closer together. Classroom friendships such as these always help to make a challenging course go a bit more easily.

Some juniors are already dreading how much they will miss their friends after they graduate. However, many more optimistic juniors make the best out of the time they have left with their friends and create new memories every day.

The Long And Winding Road

So often when the word "teenager" is mentioned, people think about selfishness, immaturity, and materialism. Fortunately the class of 1992 does not fit into this stereotype. Whether through school sponsored projects or in correlation with church youth groups, these teenagers can always be found performing services which benefit their school and their community.

Not only do service projects build a sense of compassion in students for others and for the environemnt, but they also give the students the chance to have fun through volunteer work. For instance, many clubs at Chancellor have adopted highways. The work involved in cleaning the roads can become disgusting at times; however, the thrill of helping the environment by doing so little can never be matched.

Combining his drumming and marching skills, Chris Hoovler performs in the Lightning Regiment's halftime show.

On a break from helping with senior portraits, Julie Scelfo and Melissa Lanceley amuse themselves by dressing like the guys.

Do You Remember?

Three years into high school and one year away from graduation, juniors start to question whether or not they can survive any more school. Not only are they being bombarded with increasingly difficult classes, but pressure has become greater to perform well overall.

Life was so much simplier before high school. Students usually do not experience the frustration of staying up late at night to cram for a test or to finish an assignment until they enter high school. Everybody can admit to trying to do homework for a class in the preceding class — or even worse, before the tardy bell rings.

No matter how many times a student promises himself that he will never procrastinate again, the urge to put off assignments soon returns. Maybe one day all students will discover that they would save themselves a lot of trouble if they would simply keep up with their assignments — but it's not that easy!

Juniors Pump Up The Jam

Juniors can always be found showing school spirit. At school sponsored activities such as sporting events, juniors enthusiastically demonstrate their school pride by attending both home and away games. Juniors participate in spirit contests, buy spirit ribbons, and display their school colors on spirit day. They realize Chancellor's success in the area and are proud that they play an important role in establishing Chancellor's reputation.

Juniors Get Into The Groove

As juniors begin to prepare for college, they realize the importance of good grades. Students that take a heavier work load, including Advanced and Advanced Placement classes, realize the importance of excelling in school so they can enter the college of their choice.

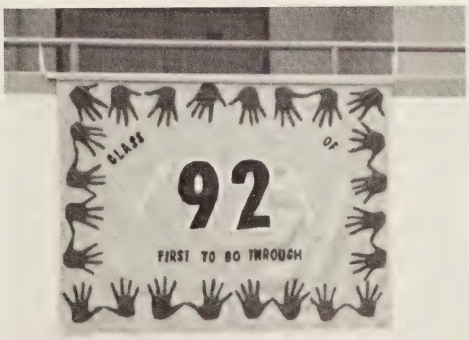
The First Of Many

Because the class of 1992 was the first group of "Freshmen", they experienced many things before any other class. They had the first class election in which the candidates were videotaped because there was no gathering place to listen to speeches.



People Are People

Juniors realize that they are individuals and that they are special in their own way. Each junior has a one of a kind personality which makes him unique. Different talents, values, points of view, and life experiences help a person develop their personality. Juniors show their true colors and stand out in the crowd.

Man In The Mirror

Juniors are natural leaders and they are America's future leaders. Juniors know it is their responsibility as America's future to make America and the world a better place to live in. They tackle small issues first, like recycling and picking up litter, and slowly progress toward harder and more demanding problems. Juniors realize that they must first change themselves and then they can help the world.

The Class Of Nineteen Ninety-three

This year's sophomore class is 364 members strong, and strength is certainly their keystone. Whether helping to lead the percussion section of the marching band as Andrew Willis is doing, or seeking students to interview for the yearbook, as Amie Jones and Tracy Hoal are doing, the sophomores are always busy helping the school run smoothly. Even in the classroom they excel, as Holly Carlin, Rusty Higgins, Mike McNally, and Nathan Campbell prove. The class of nineteen ninety-three may be only halfway to their goal of graduation, but they are getting there in style.

The Class Of Nineteen Ninety-four

Chancellor's freshmen class consists of 358 students, most of whom joined the world in 1976, and have been trying to run things ever since. Given a few more years, they certainly will be running Chancellor, and they will be proud of themselves, too. Just notice Karlie Whiteley's expression of power! Other freshmen excel in music, such as Missy Cechman, or are voted to the homecoming court, such as Ryan Malocha and Shannon Sullivan. And for all our freshmen, the future is symbolized best by our lobby's staircase upward.

Freshmen

The members of the freshmen board are Ali Farmer (President), Nicole Slusarz, Barrett Sullivan, Mary Jo Crooks (Reporter-Historian, and Ryan Malocha. Molly Harrison (Vice President), Misty Thomas, and Maggie Richardson (Secretary/Treasurer) are not pictured. DE MAW THE COUGARS

This year's varsity football team combined determination and hard work to achieve a winning record of 11-2, the team's best record in its three year history. The Chargers proudly captured the Battlefield District championship in addition to having twelve players receive individual All-District honors.

After defeating Louisa and Loudon Valley to attain the Region II title, the Chargers advanced to the state semi-final match against Tabb High School. As the only team representing the area in the state playoffs, Chancellor gave an impressive showing. Four players were named as Region II All-Stars — Charles Beasley, Melvin Davis, Eddie Dunn, and Rodney Woodward.

A strong group of seniors led the onslaught of this year's success; however the team's great depth will be exemplified in future years. The Chargers have definitely carried on the Chancellor tradition of winning.

A big play producer in many games, sophomore running back Melvin Davis completes a pair of touchdowns.

Looking to Coach Demarco and Coach Myer for ideas, Coach Miller considers options for the next play.

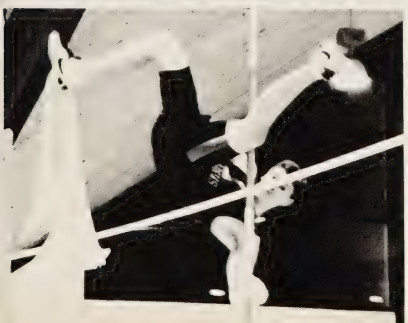
Each runner who participates in indoor track soon learns that practice takes place outside three days a week unless the weather is outrageously intolerable. Despite the harsh weather conditions, indoor track yields many benefits. It provides athletes with a conditioning program which incorporates challenging workouts in correlation with enthusiasm about teamwork. Runners who also participate in outdoor track appreciate the time they can spend on improving their technique in individual events and find indoor track to be a relaxed, yet advantageous way to spend the long winter months.



Chancellor High School was fortunate enough to have a young group of talented gymnasts. Linda McLain concentrates as she performs on the uneven bars. Kristy Myers finishes her vault routine with a great smile. Even with a hurt knee, Amy Irwin is able to hold a graceful pose. The Lady chargers line up before the Orange-James Monroe meet. Rebecca Gordon gets into position to start her floor routine. Kara Cullum prepares to advance to the high bar.

With determination and long practices, the gymnastics team finished the season undefeated in the Battlefield District. Beating last year's state champions, Park View, was one of the many highpoints of the year. In the North Stafford Invitational, the Chargers captured first place ahead of the Patriots.

Congratulations on Another Successful School Year

Success is not measured by the number of school days completed,
rather it is determined by positive attitudes,
a constant endeavor to excell,
and a delicate balance between a strong sense of unity and the importance of maintaining individuality.

At Leggett of Spotsylvania Mall,
we appreciate these qualitities of success. . .
and that is why in our store you will always feel at home,
you will always be able to find the perfect pair of jeans or the most beautiful dress for the prom, and you will always find cheerful associates to help you in your selections!

Congratulations Graduates!

Your senior year is very important because it prepares you for the tough decisions you will be forced to make in the future. The Lord has a plan for all of us and we must be open-minded and objective to receive His message. In the future, remember that you can always turn to Him for guidance, for He will always be there when others let you down. Good luck and God Bless You.

M.C. Hammer is a 27-year-old rapper from Oakland, California, who is really hot. His second album, ''Please Hammer Don't Hurt 'Em,'' sold close to 5 million copies and is one of a few rap albums in history to land at the top of the pop charts. And when Hammer puts on a show, it's an extravaganza, complete with 32 performers, cutting-edge costumes and some of the flashiest footwork being done on stage today. He's an entertainer, no doubt about it.

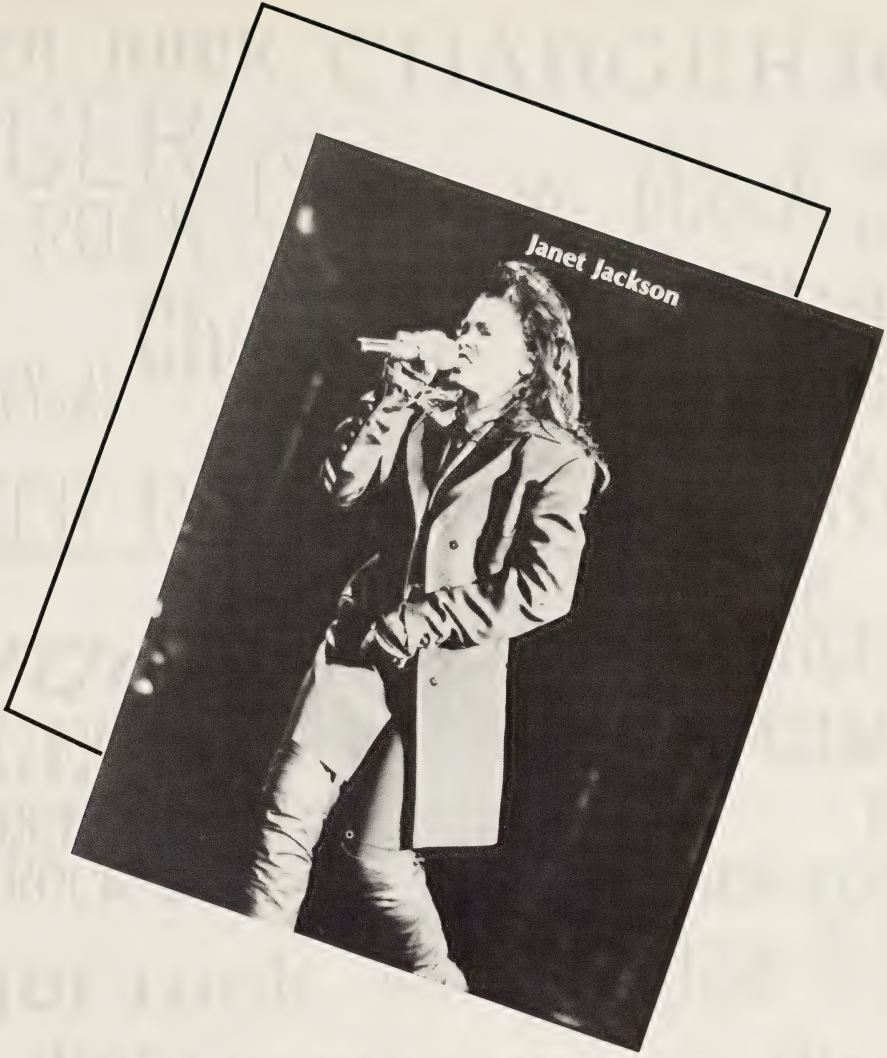
A Tribute To Rock'n Roll,



Janet Jackson skyrocketed to the top in 1990. She hit it big with ''Rhythm Nations 1814.'' Born in the mid-1960's in Gary, Indiana, five of her brothers have risen to nationwide fame as the Jackson Five. It didn't take her long to find her place in the entertainment world. In her late teens she joined the cast of the syndicated television series ''Fame'' and the rest is history.

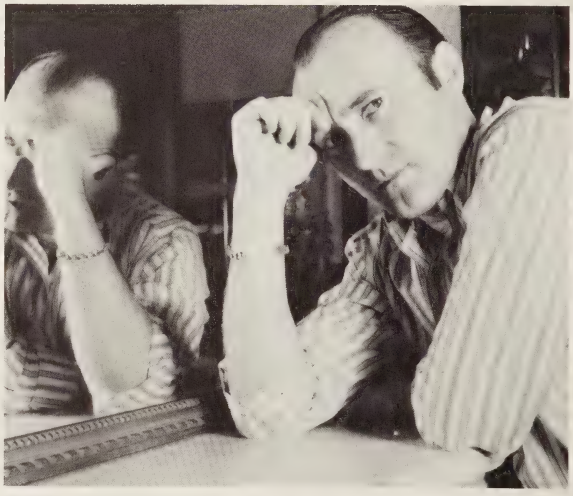
Tyler Theriot

Tyler,
To our favorite midfielder, then and now. Congratulations and best wishes in the future. From Dad, Mom, Jenae, and Justin Theriot

Chris Bruley

Best of luck to our son, Chris, and the Class of '91.



Phil Collins

Rock superstar Phil Collins started out as a drummer in the hit British group Genesis. He revived the group's career in 1976 by stepping forward as vocalist, and then he became a major rock soloist. And he still is. His latest album, " . . . But Seriously," has been on the charts for dozens of weeks, and his single, "Something Happened on the Way to to Heaven," will be around for many more weeks.

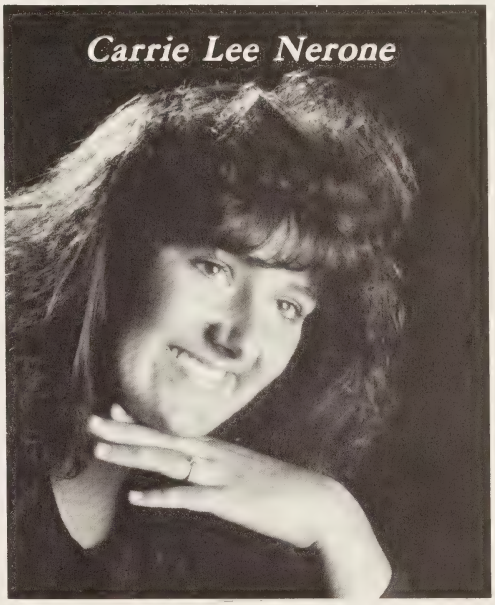
Carrie Lee Nerone



You have always been very much loved. We are, as always, proud of you.
Congratulations!

Kevin M. Farley

Congratulations, Kevin Farley! We're very proud of you, Son! We love you very much.
Mom and Dad

Paula Abdul

Paula Abdul is a big hit. The dancer-choreographer turned vocalist hasn't left the top 40 pop charts for a year. Not bad at all for a one-time valley girl cheerleader. She is one of the hot pop princess of the moment. The 28-year-old singer has made the pop charts, the black charts, the dance music charts, and it's not over yet. Her latest album hit is "Forever Your Girl."

Billy Idol

When Billy Idol is on stage, he's like a big, new action toy. He is full of theatrics and full of action. His latest single hits are "L.A. Woman" and "Cradle of Love." And his top-selling album is "Charmed Life."

Sarah Alice Teasdale Coleman

Congratulations Sarah!
"Follow your dreams and make them a reality."
With all our love,
Mom and Dad

En Vogue

The all-female group En Vogue are stars. Seen here during a recent performance, the entertaining dynamos sing the dance music that put their latest album, ''Born To Sing,'' on the charts for many months; and their single, ''Hold On,'' is also doing well.

Bell Biv Devoe

The three guys who call themselves Bell Biv Devoe rolled onto the music scene this year in a big way. Their album ''Poison'' hit the charts near the top and hasn't moved from there. And their single ''Do Me'' is a bestseller.

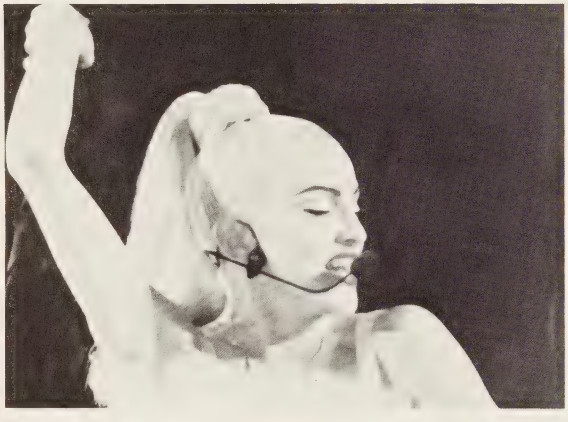
Aerosmith

Aerosmith has been around for a long time and they have a history of good times and bad times. But 1990 may have been their best yet. In concert, this hard rock/heavy metal group can kick-start an audience and never let up. The leader of the group, Steve Tyler, moves around the stage like a possessed gymnast. Their latest album, ''Pump,'' has been on the charts for all of 1990.

Amy Michelle Townsend

You hold a very special place in our family, and now you will find your special place in the world. You're everything a parent could hope for — love and laughter, beautiful and good, honest and principled, determined and independent, sensitive and intelligent. We are so proud of you and will love and support you forever.

Love,
Mom, Marshall, Donna, Marsha, and Aaron



Madonna

When you're hot, you're hot, and the golden girl Madonna has been hot for a long time. The actress, singer, and 'material girl' has had hit after hit on the charts. As the 1990-91 school year began, Madonna's latest album, ''I'm Breathless,'' was high on the list, and over on the Top 100 Singles list, ''Hanky Panky'' continued its appearance.

New Kids On The Block

The group is called New Kids on the Block. They sing, dance, break, and rap together. The Boston-based group is a heavy-hitter on any stage. To date they have sold a cumulative and commanding 17 million albums and have had five Top Five singles, of which three have made it to No. 1. They are shown here backstage with their two awards at the 17th annual American Music Awards. Jordan Knight, 20 is considered by many to be the hunk of the bunch. The others in the group are his brother, Jonathan, 21; Danny Wood, 21; Donnie Wahlberg, 20; and Joseph McIntyre, 17.

Colophon

The Challenges 1990-91 staff welcomed several new members, including Julie Scelfo, Ryan Malocha, Jennifer Shoemaker, Tracy Hoal, Angie Richardson, Amie Jones, and Hanh Le. Veteran staff were Art Canizares, Kelly Jones, Tami MeCum, and Melissa Lanceley. Our publisher was Jostens, from their Clarksville, Tennessee plant. Our sales representative was Carol Adams, and our service consultant was Chrys Brummal.

Our cover is in gray #513 using grain #1245 (sand). Applied colors are maroon and black. Our endsheets are designed by senior Renee Devers, who also wrote the lyrics and music for our new school song, Chancellor High. The book itself is in a trim size of 8½ X 11, consisting of 216 pages with a 16 page spring supplement. The first signature of the book combines full and spot color. Our bindings are smythe sewn and the paper is 80#.

We primarily used typefaces 55 and 55i, often using 56 for headlines. Sometimes we varied the copy style to suit the pages, such as in our senior tributes.

We developed the theme of Charger Rock after Renee Devers won the school song contest. In honor of that event, and in an effort to capture the music of the times, we focused on a Rock 'n Roll motif. The pictures of actual rock stars we purchased with all publication rights from R.M. Photo Service, Inc., New York, New York.

Although this year proved to be more challenging than any of us had expected, we still managed to have fun. The VHSL publications workshop held at Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond was great. We traveled with our newspaper staff, The Lightning Bolt.

It is always difficult to say good-bye to students, and especially after working so closely with them. This year three yearbook staffers leave: Tami MeCum, Kelly Jones, and Art Canizares. Tami, in fact, left in January to become an exchange student in New Zealand. We will miss all of you.

Art had the dubious distinction of being the only male on the staff this year. But distinctions such as this also reap rewards. He has been coddled, pampered, teased, flirted with, and favored by the ten girls all year. In fact, one wall of the yearbook office was dedicated to Art this year. Among other things on it was this poem by Melissa Lanceley:

Thou Art the core of my apple.
Of a rose thou Art the bud.
I will always love you,
Because thou Art a stud.
